20. A) How much latitude is allowed employee in completing the work? b) What kinds of instructions, methods and guidelines are given to the employee in this position to help do the work? c) State how and in what detail assignments are made.

Workers exercise a moderate amount of independent judgment. The employee is provided with specific assignments from professional staff and the supervisor. Work is assigned with general verbal instructions and may involve the interpretation and implementation of specific manual instructions. Manuals for this position tend to be complicated or technical in nature and require careful interpretation.

d) Which statement best describes the results of error in action or decision of this employee?

- () Minimal property damage, minor injury, minor disruption of the flow of work.
 (X) Moderate loss of time, injury, damage, or adverse impact on health and welfare of others.
 () Major program failure, major property loss, or serious injury of incapacitation.
 () Loss of life, disruption of operations of a major agency.

21. Describe the work of this position using this page or one additional page only. (Use the following format for describing job duties:) What is the action being done (use an action verb); to whom or what is the action directed (object of action); why is the action being done (describe the result or outcome expected); How is the action expected to be performed (describe the manner, methods, techniques or procedures in which the task is currently performed). For each task state: Who reviews it? How often? What is it reviewed for?

Number Each Task and Indicate Percent of Time and Identify each function as essential or marginal by placing an E or M next to the % of time for each task. Essential functions are the primary job duties for which the position was created and that an employee must be able to perform, with or without reasonable accommodation. A marginal function is a peripheral, incidental or minimal part of the position.

No.	%	E or M	The tasks listed below will be reviewed for accuracy, completeness, and compliance with agency policy and practice standards by the supervisor on an ongoing basis. This will be achieved through reviewing completed work assignments for results obtained, individual conferences, reports, and feedback from others.

90% E Maintains FACTS System
Maintains the FACTS System to ensure that accurate information is documented in a timely manner. This task is extremely important in that data entered into this system demonstrates that the area's activities meet agency and statutory requirements and is used in making statewide critical decisions that pertain to child safety. This task is accomplished by completing a number of complex and unrelated steps:

- * Gathers and prepares information for entry into the FACTS System to include receiving and searching open case files for complete information; searching various computer systems such as KAECSSES, Birth records, Driver=s License records, KanPay, MMIS, and KIDS, closed files, and/or contacting other staff and contract staff where information is incomplete; reviewing additional information with social worker to ensure accuracy; independently extracting identifying information such as school districts and counties and processing this information in accordance with procedures, rules, and regulations.
- * Activates and maintains electronic case files in the FACTS System by meeting all deadlines for data entry from case activation until case closure, by analyzing data on case forms and selecting appropriate entry to ensure accurate correlation between selected entry and the various program possibilities, and by making sure the correct information is included in court orders prior to entering this information into the FACTS System.
- * Utilizing the system to identify key information for professional and supervisory staff to include alerting worker and supervisor of real and potential deadline problems.

5% E Receives Intakes
Acts as back up in receiving reports regarding suspected child or adult abuse and/or neglect in order to provide information needed to screen intakes and therefore ensure the safety and well-being of children, families and adults. This is achieved by structuring questions to elicit sufficient information from initial reporter, examining reported information to determine what other facts/details are needed, conducting follow up inquiries with collateral contacts, and researching prior agency records to supplement and validate information received in initial reports and to assemble an agency profile of historical contact with the client. At times this may require providing crisis intervention to customers in order to diffuse potentially volatile situations. Prepares a detailed written account of the information received on designated forms and in accordance with agency policies to ensure that accurate information is gathered to identify the risk factors necessary in making an appropriate screening decision and refers completed form to the appropriate person in a timely manner for prompt screening.

5% E Other Duties
The worker should attend related training and workgroups, and will need to complete any other duties assigned, in particular any special projects.

*The description of how the work is to be performed does not preclude the consideration of reasonable accommodation(s) for qualified persons with a disability.

22. List the consequences of not performing the essential functions of this position as identified in Section 21.

Failure to receive intakes could result in reports not being made and the agency failing to intervene as appropriate.

Failure to provide information and referral services would result in inadequate communication between the agency and consumers which could result in consumers not receiving information or services in a timely manner and additional stress being placed on the child and family.

Failure to maintain the FACTS System could have an impact on receipt of federal funds, compliance with American Civil Liberties Union settlement, the Adoption and Foster Care Analysis and Reporting System (AFCARS), Kansas Legislative Post-Audit, and the National Child Abuse and Neglect Data Systems (NCANDS).

Failure to provide accurate and timely case management, documentation, and/or clerical support services would result in the work of the team being impeded, would place the agency out of compliance with requirements of law or procedures, and could ultimately impact the receipt of federal funds.

23. A. If work involves leadership, supervisory, or management responsibilities, check the statement which best describes the position.

- ☐ Lead worker assigns, trains, schedules, oversees, or reviews work of others.
- ☐ Plans, staffs, evaluates, and directs work of employees of a work unit.
- ☐ Delegates authority to carry out work of a unit to subordinate supervisors or managers.

b. List the class titles, and position numbers of all persons who are supervised directly by employee on this position.

Title	Position/KIPPS Number
N/A

24. For what purpose, with whom and how frequently are contacts made with the public, other employees or officials?

Contact is made with co-workers on a daily basis to receive information in order to ensure accurate FACTS data entry.

25. What hazards, risks or discomforts exist on the job or in the work environment?

The employee may experience stress resulting from meeting deadlines and use of office equipment on a repetitive basis. Long periods of time may be spent working on a computer.

26. List machines or equipment used regularly in the work of this position. Indicate the frequency with which they are used.

The telephone, fax machine, copy machine, general office equipment, and personal computer are used daily.
